

Candidate Attorney

What we look for in candidate attorneys:

- consistently good academic results
- a willingness to succeed
- drive and initiative
- proven leadership qualities
- commitment to the welfare of others and their communities
- well-above-average communication skills
- well balanced all-rounders
- the ability to think “out of the box”
- people who have a passionate interest in IP law

What we offer in return:

- a comprehensive training programme
- broad-based skills training
- regular assessments on progress
- mentorship
- open door policy
- competitive remuneration and benefits
- equal opportunities
- cultural diversity
- exposure to international blue chip clients
- a clear career path with the ability to become a partner of a top rated IP firm

Please note the closing date for articles 2020 is 31 August 2018.

Please note that applications will not be considered if they do not include your academic transcript, additional documents should be your updated CV, cover letter and a copy of your ID.

Should you wish to apply for articles with Spoor & Fisher, please submit your application to articles@spoof.com.

